94TH LINZ AWARD RECIPIENT - FRANK A. RISCH

Throughout his lifetime, Frank Risch has led and participated in important and influential philanthropic organizations and campaigns. Because of his efforts, Dallas has a future with vibrant performing arts and further generations will learn the lessons of the Holocaust for the benefit of all humanity.

As a current board member and former board chair of the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum, Frank played a central role in opening the Museum's acclaimed 55,000 square foot space. He has said, "The lessons of the Holocaust, learned and unlearned, instruct us, teach us, and make us aware of the frightening human rights conditions we see in our world today...and even in our own community."

Frank is a former board member of the executive committee of the AT&T Performing Arts Center; an emeritus board member of Dallas CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates); past vice chairman of the Dallas Zoological Society; past president of Temple Emanu-El; past chairman of Communities Foundation of Texas; and former chairman of the board and now a life trustee of the Dallas Theater Center.

Frank hopes his work in community engagement will continue to thrive and pay dividends for generations to come.
