

LINZ AWARD

EST. 1924

The winner(s) will be selected based on extraordinary civic and/or humanitarian efforts in the City of Dallas. Nominees must be currently involved in Dallas community activities. Please place significance on a nominee's impact over the past decade or their lifetime.

.....

1. What significant contributions or accomplishments, including notable achievements over the past decade or longer, qualify this person or couple to receive the 92nd Annual Linz Award?

2. In what ways did the nominee(s) affect the Dallas community at large, and what were the results of his/her/their efforts?

3. List Dallas community boards the nominee(s) has served on, including any offices held.

91st LINZ AWARD RECIPIENT - MARGOT PEROT

Margot Perot embodies the spirit of civic servanthood and generosity. Over her lifetime, Perot has provided extensive leadership, time, and funding to countless local nonprofits. She served on boards such as the Salvation Army, Dallas Symphony Orchestra, Highland Park Presbyterian Church, Junior League of Dallas, Maureen Connolly Brinker Tennis Foundation, Texas Commission of the Arts, The Hockaday School, The Perot Museum of Nature and Science, and United Way of Metropolitan Dallas. In her various leadership roles, she's helped guide nonprofit executives to secure sustainable futures.

Perot has said that some of her most inspiring philanthropic efforts were with The Salvation Army, which she began working with in the early 1980s. Because of her work, she received the William Booth Award in 1997, the Evangeline Booth Award in 2002 and the Distinguish Auxiliary Service Award in 2013.

Perot has also supported the Dallas Opera, the North Texas Food Bank, the Dallas Museum of Art, UT Southwestern, and Children's Medical Center, just to name a few. She is also a founding member of the Ruth Sharp Altshuler Tocqueville Society and was awarded with the Decades of Distinction Award in 2017 by United Way.
